Homes for your stay

Our secluded 18th-century traditional stone cottages are great for friends and families who want to relax in the countryside while gearing up for a celebratory weekend. Watch roe deer grazing, hare dashing or you might even spot salmon leaping as they head upstream to spawn. Great for groups or couples who want to enjoy a relaxing break, our cottages in rural Aberdeenshire, on the edge of the Grampian Highlands are close to the Cairngorm National Park. Choose from a romantic home for two, family-friendly spaces with riverside views, a place in the country where friends can gather or a fine 21st-century house on the banks of the River Deveron.

We have some of the best accommodation in the area in close proximity to Aswanley's wedding venue.

For those who want to travel a bit further and explore rural Aberdeenshire we have a list of properties a little bit further afield.

We offer both long and short breaks (min stay 3 nights)

This traditional stone croft is hidden away in a forest clearing, with breathtaking views over the trees to the River Deveron Valley and distant Grampian Highlands. It's a great place to getaway from it all, relax and unwind in one of the most romantic Highland cottages. Many couples married at Aswanley choose to spend the first days of their honeymoon at Jocky Milne's. We can arrange flowers, champagne and chocolates to be left at the holiday cottage for your arrival, or a breakfast basket so you don't need to go to the supermarket. Just let us know.

Perfect for babies and young children, this detached property is a bolthole for young families with its wealth of baby-friendly equipment.

The cottage has two bedrooms upstairs, a double bedroom with en-suite bathroom and a twin room. Downstairs, there is an additional bathroom and another toilet in the utility room next to the back door. Westerpark has a spacious kitchen, a comfortable sitting room with an open fire and all the bedrooms have en-suite bathrooms. The house has an extensive garden with multiple outdoor seating areas which catch the evening sun. Adventurous kids love all the outdoor space – there's a swing over the burn, woods to explore and two large lawns for games. The cottage is just over the hill from Aswanley's wedding venue. It's a popular place for the bridal party to stay. The large kitchen can double up as a temporary make up studio, as well as accommodating additional guests for dinner (the table can seat 10 people). The neutral grey interior walls provide an elegant backdrop for preparation photos and outside the rustic farm building walls give character and warmth.
